A Night to Remember

A night to remember.....this was the feeling at our 2011 Gala Tribute Dinner honoring Moselle and Michael Amron.

The Errol Levi Ballroom looked gorgeous with its purple and hot pink decor, floral arrangements by Marks Garden, and the great Skye Michaels Orchestra playing to a sold out crowd.

The warmth and happiness in the room was once again a terrific reminder of how much love and excitement overflows when our Kahal community is together in an elegant social setting. Our president, Ronald Einy set the tone for the evening with his welcoming remarks, and our honorees were filled with emotion.

To all those who organized this Gala, and to all those in attendance, this was one unforgettable evening.

Kahal Joseph should be very proud.

2011 Legacy of Kindness Gala Tribute

By Joe Samuels

Sunday night was a night to remember for Kahal Joseph. Members, non-members, friends and family gathered to honor Moselle and Michael Amron with the 2011 Legacy of Kindness Award given by Kahal's Board of Directors. Many admire Mr. & Mrs. Amron for their deep love for each other, devotion to their family and dedication to the community.

The celebration started with delicious selection of hors d'oeuvres of tender steak, tempura salmon, teriyaki steak, Moroccan cigars and eggrolls. With a well stocked bar there was nothing missing. The dinner was delicious, starting with Ahi tuna salad, and a choice of Chilean sea bass or Cornish game hen in beautiful presentation, the hallmark of Simon's Catering.

Ladies arrived stylish and beautiful in cocktail attire and men were elegantly and smartly dressed, all ready to celebrate the event. When the music began, Moselle and Michael's cheerful spirit and youthful attitude, coupled with their charm and charisma, brought everyone to the dance floor. Many remember them as the star dancers and winners of many ballroom dancing awards. Michael, who broke his hip a few months ago was in his element, and Moselle joined him, moving to the music. When Michael was lifted high on a chair like a Bar Mitzvah boy, everyone went wild.

During dinner the crowd was surprised to see a homeless man with a large black mustache and a black hat, mumbling and wobbling, pushing his way to the dance floor. Women held on to their purses. The security guard was about to remove the intruder, when a little girl screamed "Don't take him away. That's my grandpa". The odd looking man was none other than Michael, whom at 91 still has the energy and mischievousness of a 19 year-old. Then Michael took the microphone and told us about his first date with Moselle, a rendezvous that has lasted for 71 years. Their son David also spoke about his parents' deep love and their Saturday night dancing adventures at Russian nightclubs. Everyone could see how their attitude, behavior, action and joie de vivre keep them young at heart.

We give our heartfelt congratulations to Moselle and Michael for a well deserved honor. We thank the banquet chairs for a beautifully planned and organized night full of fun, intimacy and camaraderie. And, we look forward to many more memorable events in the future.
