

KOL MEVASSER

Rabbi's Corner

Rabbi Hagay Batzri

This Rosh Hashanah we enter the year 5773, as measured from the day of creation. Yes, it's a new year. But, in Hebrew we call it by a different name: "Rosh" means "head," and "Hashanah" indicates "repetition."

Just as our body moves and functions as directed by the head, the two days of Rosh Hashanah direct the remaining days of the year. Rosh Hashanah contains the seed, the intelligence that influences us over the next 365 days of the year.

Here, "repetition" signifies the opportunity to continually return ourselves to the starting point of the year. Therefore we focus on making these two days of the year sweet and happy, holy and peaceful, pleasurable and joyous. Then they will influence us for the rest of the year. Isn't this a great opportunity?

This marks the fifth Rosh Hashanah for me and my family here at Kahal Joseph. Our heart is full of gratitude to Hashem that we are with such a sweet community.

We love you all. Our blessings to you: we hope you each have a great start to the year that continues incredibly well for the rest of the year. We wish you and your family happiness, health, prosperity, self realization and full redemption. Amen.

President's Message

Dear Members and Friends,

May we share in the New Year 5773 plentiful opportunities for growth as individuals, as Jews, as families, and as a community. And may we continue to learn together, pray together, and care for each other.

May the best and brightest years for all of us lie ahead.

I wish for each of us a bold inscription in the BOOK OF LIFE for a healthy, happy and contented New Year.

Tizkoo L'Shanim Raboth,

Ronald Einy
