Rabbi's Message

by Rabbi Natan Halevy BSD

Shalom.

We find ourselves in a challenging time in the world. However, at the same time, we have just been given an immense spiritual gift in the form of the Passover holiday. The Festival of 'Liberation and Redemption' truly lives up to its name. It imbues us with strength and freedom on so many levels.

For this reason, after Pesach has ended we continue the counting of the Omer which started on Pesach. The influence of Pesach remains even after the holiday has officially ended.

We count the Omer for 49 days until we reach the 50th day. This day represents the lofty level of the 50th portal of supernal wisdom and understanding, on which we received the Torah on Shavuot.

Indeed, our holidays are not only a historical remembrance. They are a vibrant, living experience. Through our reenactment of the physical elements of the original events, we are blessed with the strong illumination and empowerment endowed to us on these special days.
