Rabbi's Message

Rabbi Natan Halevy
BSD

Shalom Ubracha,

This week's parasha discusses the procedure of the red heifer or 'parah adumah'. The concoction which the Kohen made from it and the other items offer the only purification for anyone who comes into contact with a corpse.

There is a loss created by a person's passing. Therefore, anyone who comes into contact with the body contracts a certain impurity that impacts their spiritual well-being and their life-force. Part of the purpose of this mitzvah is to fill this spiritual void.

Protocols explained in the Torah are real and important.

The protocol for 'parah adumah' is an intricate procedure tied up with many details each filled with spiritual and symbolic meaning. This Torah law blends the physical and spiritual realms.
