Rabbi's Message

Rabbi Natan Halevy
BSD

Shalom U'vracha,

Parashat Pinhas emphasizes the importance of leadership, and teaches us about it, truly exploring this crucial aspect of life on many levels. We explore the leadership of a nation through the story of Pinhas, who had to act quickly in a challenging situation. Interestingly, his actions were perceived with derision by many members of the community.

We live in a sensitive world. Maintaining a healthy equilibrium is not always an easy task. Once a healthy balance is lost, it may take time to regain it. In the story of Pinhas, the Torah shows us that we must take a stand at certain times—even when our position may be unpopular, or when our decision doesn't resonate with all of the nation. Nevertheless, if our stance is right for the situation and is in accordance with the will of Hashem, then that is what must happen.

True leaders are not afraid to make hard decisions . . .
