A Message from the President

Dear friends,

As we celebrate the holiday of Passover, the miracle of our Exodus from Egypt, let's all pray for health and peace for all nations. Let's be grateful for all the blessings that we have in our lives.

Warm wishes to you and your families
for a Happy Passover,

Hag Pesah Kasher ve'Sameah,
Yvette Dabby

Pesah Insights from Rabbi Halevy

Chag Sameah!

Pesah is called Zman Heruteinu which means "the time of our freedom". Pesah is a time when the energy and potential for growth are annually renewed. Our tradition enables us to increasingly connect to this energy, no matter where we find ourselves or what time it is. We are given the power to experience spiritual liberation on Pesah, especially on the Seder nights.

The experience of spiritual liberation is enhanced by performing mitzvot connected to the holiday. Our deeds and intentions reenact the spiritual liberation which happened so many years ago. We relive it in an increasingly more powerful way with each succeeding year.

The order of the Seder and the recitation of the Haggadah encourage us to integrate the energy of spiritual liberation into our lives. There are 15 steps of the Seder, which correspond to the first two letters of Hashem's name, yud and heh. Pesah means ‘skipping’ in Hebrew. Although we go in order through the fifteen steps, we are able to go outside the limitations that may be ‘enslaving’ us on a spiritual level

The word Haggadah means ‘telling’ and comes from the biblical commandment: “And you shall tell your ‘son’ [children] on that day.” It is a mitzvah to tell the story of Pesah and teach our children on this night. Getting our children, and the younger generation involved and engaged is one of the main highlights of Pesah.

That is why the four questions are asked by children at the start of the Haggadah. And this is the reason behind so many other customs which were instituted to keep our children engaged. In order to ensure a strong future for our people, and ultimately for the world, we must enlighten and inform our children constantly.
